Fake 'Cop' Gyps Sleepy Pair

A total stranger who posed as a police officer "off-duty" asked for the wallets and car keys of two sleeping gyps in the Palos

Verdes Hills this week, and then drove off. Lennox deputies reported yesterday.

Orrin S. Hallock and Ribert Oberketter, both of Taft, California, told officers they were asleep in their car in the hills when a young man aroused them, informed them they were violating parking regulations, and asked for their wallets and keys.
